Bull River Wilderness Creek Cabins

Elk River Guiding Company has access to a very special place that we want to share with you this season! Trust us, this will be that remote fly fishing trip you've always dreamed of!

Take your pick between 3 days of guided fly fishing and 4 night's accommodation at the Bull River Wilderness Creek Cabins, or 2 days guided fly fishing, and 3 night's accommodation. This trip is based on a minimum of 2 anglers and a maximum of 6. The Bull River Wilderness Creek Cabins are very rustic, remote back country cabins high up in the Canadian Rocky Mountains.

You will be amazed by the wilderness surrounding you while fishing for wild, west slope cutthroat. After a great day of fishing return to well maintained historical log cabins that have a very classic wilderness atmosphere. The cabins provide everything a die-hard fisherman needs to stay warm and dry. The sense of remote isolation is very hard to match in the Elk Valley.
